WATCH THE CROWD FLOCK TO HONDO JUNE 26-27.

S. W. Crabtree of Bullis spent the week here on a visit to his family.

Misses Alice Bilhartz and Hilda Lamm of San Antonio were here Wednesday for the Weynand-Bendele nuptials.

Messrs. Albert Bilhartz, Jack Bil-hartz, Rudolph Haass and Armin Bendele and their families and Fritz Palm, all of Biry, were here Wednesday for the marriage of Miss Carline Bendele and Mr. Robert Weynand.

Mr. J. W. Griffiths and family returned from San Antonio last week-end where they had been for two weeks.
Mr. Griffiths served Uncle Sam as a petit juror, while his family took advantage of the opportunity to visit relatives in the city.

Mr. and Mrs. Hubert Weynand were here from Somerset Wednesday to attend the marriage of Mr. Wey-nand's brother, Robert Weynand, and Miss Carline Bendele, which event took place at the Catholic church at 8 o'clock Wednesday morning.

The fine rains of May and June have given all the waste places about the city a wilderness-like growth of weeds. A war of destruction can not be too ruthlessly waged upon them if the beauty of our town, to say nothing of the health and comfort of our people, is to be conserved.

Once again let us ask the good people of Hondo to report all social, club, society, or church functions to us promptly and in full. We do not want to play any favorites or slight any one, and in order to live up to that standard must depend upon those interested to hand us in their write-ups. Early—please!

Mrs. H. F. King and son, Master Jack, and Misses Lucille and Gladys Woolfs came in from Georgetown on Tuesday night's train, where the three first named had been to attend the commencement exercises at the Southwestern University. Miss Gladys was a student at Southwestern and returns with a certificate of proficiency in piano music. One of Hon-do's sons, Horace M. King, who has been a student at the University for Henry Bendele and two boys were up from Shookville Wednesday and while here Mr. Bendele paid this office an appreciated call. We were pleased to learn from Mr. Bendele that at an election held at the Shook school house Saturday, June 10, the district voted unanimously to levy a 50 cents maintenance tax and next session the school will employ two teachers. Mr. Bendele's mission to Hondo was to bring in the returns of the election.

Messrs. R. L. Haass and Albert Bilhartz, two of the Biry section's most substantial farmers, and former pillars of the old Farmers' Union, were pleasant callers at this office Wednesday. They each backed up their good wishes for our new farm publication by voluntary subscriptions to it. It is their kind of men that the new farm paper will depend upon to make it a power for usefulness to the great industry of feeding and clothing the world—Farming. We were pleased to learn that their section has a bumper corn crop made, and they are hopeful that a warm, dry July and August will insure a cotton crop.

The generous response of the local business firms to our solicitation for advertising in our forthcoming publication is gratifying evidence to us that they are sincerely desirous of helping us maintain a creditable printing and publishing business in our little city. For this we are duly grateful and shall strive to merit their confidence and substantial endorsement. We have not troubled all of them with importunities for business, but if there are any we have failed to see who would like to be represented in the advertising columns of the initial issue we can still find room—if you will ring telephone 127 right quick. Thank you!

WEYNAND-BENDELE.

Miss Carline Bendele and Mr. Robert Weynand were happily married Tuesday morning, June 14, 1922, in the St. John the Evangelist Catholic Church with Rev. Father Francis Pallanche officiating. The ring ceremony was used.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party, Miss Corrine Ney sang "At Dawning," accompanied by Miss Lillian Brucks. Then, to the strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, the attendants came in the following order: Vincent Haass, groomsmen; Miss Hilda Lamm, bridesmaid; and Miss Alice Bilhartz, maid of honor, preceded the bride. They were met at the altar by the groom and the best man, Mathews Koch.

The bride was attired in a goingaway suit of dark blue Periet twill with a grey hat and accessories to match. She carried a bouquet of bride roses.

Miss Alice Bilhartz, maid of honor, was dressed in henna all-over lace, with brown lace hat. She carried a bouquet of pink Gladiolas.

Miss Hilda Lamm, bridesmaid, wore brown all-over lace with brown hat. She carried a bouquet of pink Gladiolas.

After the marriage ceremony at the church, the bridal party repaired to the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Theresa Bendele, where a wedding breakfast was served.

Mr. and Mrs. Weynand left at once by auto on a honeymoon trip to San Antonio and other points of interest.
They were liberally showered with rice on their departure. Many pretty and useful wedding gifts were received by the happy pair.

This paper joins the many friends of these young people in congratulations and best wishes.

DEL RIO TEAM COMING HERE.

The Hondo Baseball Club has just completed arrangements to bring to Hondo the biggest baseball attraction in years. They have scheduled the most talked of team in Texas—Del Rio, for a two-game series here on Monday and Tuesday, June 26 and 27.

The Del Rio team, considered by many the finest amateur team in Texas, consists of the pick of the star players in this state and it is indeed an event for Hondo to be given the opportunity to witness a two-game series between that team and our boys here at home. The expense in bringing an attraction like that here is very great, but knowing fully that the people of Hondo can always be depended on to put something over, the team is willing to take a chance on staging the event.

The game is being advertised in every neighboring town around here and a record breaking crowd is sure to attend. However, we must depend upon the home people for the greater part of our support, and we urge all of you to be at these games and lend us your financial support.

Twenty-five or fifty cents if given by everyone will do the trick, but if many depend upon a few to finance things of this kind, it will be a failure.

We need your support financially as well as morally and we hope every body brings a quarter or half dollar with them for these games.

Don't miss it! The two biggest games between the two fastest teams in Southwest Texas. Let's go!!!

NOTICE!

Desiring to bring to the people of Hondo the best possible attractions, the Hondo Baseball Club has just completed arrangements to bring the fast DEL RIO TEAM, one of the greatest amateur teams in the State of Texas, here on Monday and Tuesday June 26th and 27th

for a two-game series.

This is without a doubt the most spectacular Baseball Event Hondo has ever had, and due to the enormous expense in bringing a team of this calibre here, we must have everybody's support. We urge every one to make it his or her business to see these games and help us carry this event to a successful finish.

B. L. Robinson, one of our substantial farmers on the west side, was a business caller at this office Monday, and set others an example that we hope many will emulate within the next ten days—volunteered as a subscriber to help me put the new farm publication across.
There has been a cessation of rain in this section, only 4.4 of an inch falling since our last issue. Farmers were badly in need of a period of dry weather and are using every moment of the time cleaning out their cotton-crops which generally had become somewhat foul from our protracted wet spell.
Surprises will never cease. August Horning is taking a vacation. He left Thursday evening for San Antonio, and before returning home will visit Austin and Houston. The Courthouse will not look natural with Mr. Horning absent from his accustomed place. He has been a little under the weather recently—not sick, but a little out of sorts, and hopes to regain his normal health by a short cessation from the daily grind of his work. He is planning to be absent ten days or more, but predictions are that he will be back in harness before that time.
Judge L. J. Brucks is in receipt of a recent communication from his son, Louis, familiarly known in Hondo as "Little Louie," advising him that he would sail for home about June 29, after about a year's absence spent principally in Belgium and France.
Louie went to Europe principally on a sight-seeing trip but had not been over there long before Uncle Sam, in need of efficient help, again got him back in the service and he has been stationed at Brest, where he has been busily engaged helping his Uncle to get his troops and war material out of France acting in the capacity of shipping clerk. It is his desire to pay a short visit home on reaching America if he can induce the American Bridge Company, whose service he will again enter, to grant him a brief vacation after his return to his native land.

Catarhal Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications as they cannot reach only one way to cure Catarhal Deafness and that is by a constitutional remedy.

HALL'S CATARRH MEDICINE acts through the Blood on the Mucous Sur-caused by an inflamed condition of the

When this tube is inflamed you have when it is entirely closed, Deafness is the result. Unless the inflammation can be re-

Camp Verde.

Ivring Frerichs, wife and baby, motored from San Antonio to the Otto Weltner home Saturday evening, returning to San Antonio Sunday by way of Kerrville where they visited Mr. Frerich's father, who is at the Thompson Sanitarium. About eight miles below Boerne another car, traveling in the same direction and going at high speed, hit the front wheel of the Frerichs car and the machine was thrown into a barb wire fence. No one was injured, but Mr. Frerich's car required a new front axle, steering rod and other minor repairs.

KNOWLEDGE THE LIGHT OF THE WORLD.

Transportation.

The wasteful exploitation of our natural resources in the selfish pursuit of profit in production has been discussed under the titles of Land, Forests, and Mineral Fuels. Transportation furnishes another example of a great public service being outrageously abused in the interest of private profit.

The early immigrants to Texas came overland by private conveyance, the covered wagon, drawn by mule, horse or ox team. The ox and mule team to the covered wagon was also a slow but simple means of transporting goods from the seaboard to the inland settlement. Ranching was the most common means of livelihood, but hunting and fishing were by no means to be considered merely as recreations. As the country developed, stage routes were established for travel, and wagon trains were the chief means of transportation for farm products to the seaboard and for commercial commodities back to the inland towns. The writer has a vivid recollection of the old stage coach and the long trains of Chihuahua wagons, each drawn by a team of fourteen to eighteen mules, as they toiled along the present route of the Southern Pacific Railroad from San Antonio to Eagle Pass through Castroville and Uvalde, forty years ago.

But the growing population and the demands of a growing civilization soon attracted the attention of promoters who were ready to put railroads across the state and make the people pay for them directly while they should become the personal property of the promoters. Just as our natural resources have been exploited for private profit, so have the means of transportation been developed, not as a public service, but as a matter of private profit. The railroads in Texas were built and equipped at the direct cost of the people.

The rights of way were granted free through country and town and title either given direct by the land owner or paid for out of the bonus put up by the public spirited citizens, a necessary means of getting the railroads. This bonus was demanded of the citizenship in much the same way as the robber barons of the middle ages would capture a city and demand a ransom or else destroy the city. There are examples of prosperous towns in Texas that were ruined by these railroad barons as ruthlessly as were those obstinate cities of yore.

New town sites were laid out on lands given, or bought for a song, and the lots sold at auction. The old towns were deserted at a great loss to the settlers while they moved to the railroad to grow up in business with the new town. A road would accept the bonus of a town and then build by it and often develop a new town nearby to destroy the old and merely meet the demands of the law by building a tap or spur into the old town. The actual facts of these early outrages are yet so fresh in the memories of those who suffered by them as to need no more definite mention.

Not only did the counties and cities contribute liberally in rights of way and bonuses to the building of these roads, but the state granted vast areas of her rich public domain free in order to secure the needed development of transportation facilities. Nor were these the only means of raising funds to make rich railroad barons. The simple device of watering stocks made the streams of revenue flow from the public to the private wealth.

But the public suffered in other ways at the hands of these robber barons besides paying outright for the property that was thus appropriated to the ends of private fortunes. The injuries to person and property incident to an indifferent administration were so frequent and flagrant that they became unbearable. A breed of lawyers was developed to cope with the situation and they are busy yet preying on friend and foe alike.

Last, but not least, of the abuses suffered of these robber barons was the virtual enslavement of their employees engaged in the toil of the actual operation and maintenance of the roads. They were subjected to such long hours as to endanger the lives of the traveling public and were so exhausted as to be unfit for social enjoyment, either at home or elsewhere. While the hours were so long, the pay was so short as to keep the laborers and their families in actual want of the necessary comforts of life and deprive their children of the opportunities of education.

It is not my purpose to dwell on these abuses of our public services to the exclusion of the advantages that we have received but to make emphatic the need of reforms which are imperative and which I shall attempt to set forth in later articles.

THE "OLD RELIABLE" THEDFORD'S BLACK-DRAUGHT

White Haired Alabama Lady Says She Has Seen Medicines Come and Go But The "Old Reliable" Thedford's Black-Draught Came and Stayed.

Dutton, Ala.—In recommending Thedford's Black-Draught to her friends and neighbors here, Mrs. T. F. Parks, a well-known Jackson County lady, said: "I am getting up in years; my head is pretty white. I have seen medicines and remedies come and go but the old reliable came and stayed. I am talking of Black-Draught, a liver medicine we have used for years—one that can be depended upon and one that will do the work. "Black-Draught will relieve indigestion and constipation if taken right, and I know for I tried it. It is the best thing I have ever found for the full, uncomfortable feeling after meals. Sour stomach and sick headache can be relieved by taking Black-Draught. It aids digestion, also assists the liver in throwing off impurities. I am glad to recommend Black-Draught, and do, to my friends and neighbors." Thedford's Black-Draught is a standard household remedy with a record of over seventy years of successful use. Every one occasionally needs something to help cleanse the system of impurities. Try Black-Draught. Insist upon Thedford's, the genuine. At all druggists.

HONDO SWAMPS BANDERA.

With expectations of seeing a good game, the largest crowd of the year turned out to see Hondo battle Band-era here Tuesday.

To say that everyone was disappointed in putting it mildly because Bandera instead of proving a worthy foe, turned out to be a cinch and as a result went home badly beaten by an 18 to 0 score.

Starting off in the very first inning Hondo salted the game right there and then. A couple of walks and about 8 successful squeeze plays netted the locals 10 runs and from then on it was just a matter of playing the full nine innings out.

Bandera came heralded as a fast slugging bunch and team that promised to make Hondo sit up and take notice but our boys just naturally couldn't believe that they could be beaten and went right on the field with that confident spirit and just made a farce out of the game.

Eddie Mueller pitched for Hondo, allowing Bandera only four hits, while we garnered 17 off Knibbe and Turner, the Bandera slingers.

The score:

MOSE HARRIS PASSES AWAY.

Major Mose Harris, editor of the Texas Republic, published at San Antonio, died last Friday at El Paso. In his departure for that bourne from which no traveler has ever returned, the Southwest loses one of its best and most vitriolic writers. The Major was a Kentuckian by birth, a Texan from choice and Republican as a matter of principle. He fought in the open for the things he believed in and while he had many political enemies, he had thousands of admirers all over Texas because of his bold and fearless championship of the men and the measures that he believed in.

As a young man Major Harris worked on the Louisville Journal, which later became the Courier-Journal, by a consolidation and incidentally was the greatest paper in the South. Opie Reed was also connected with the same paper at a later date and the two founded and published a paper in Arkansas for a short time.

After the Arkansas venture failed Mr. Harris came to Texas and for many years did editorial work on leading dailies of the state. Later he was appointed to a government position under General Webster Flannagan and held this until the establishment of the Texas Republic in San Antonio some 25 years ago.

In the Alamo City Mose Harris' paper became a power. Although a republican he frequently fought the battles of democrats in county and city affairs and there is not a politician in that city who didn't know that it was worth while for him to have Mose Harris on his side.

The West Texas News regrets to chronicle the death of this old veteran. He was a war horse for what he believed to be right and it was his pen as much as the work of any reformer in San Antonio that straightened out many of the crooked things that had long stood up in Tamaleville politics. He was keen, unafraid and a writer who could deliver a knock with a kick to it that would stagger an opponent. His kind are scarce now and we do not know but what the world is much worse off because of that fact.—Del Rio News.

Lightning Kills Cow and Picks Hen.
J. H. Spivey reports lightning killing a good cow for him one night last week. Mr. Spivey said he had been setting in the forks of a tree, when the lightning struck the tree, killing up three nest, smashing the box and the eggs, picked the feathers on the side and wing of the hen but did not kill her, but killed a cow near the tree. It all happened real close to the windrow where he was sleeping, and was a very frightening affair for a few seconds.

County Judge Ralph J. Noonan was in Devine Friday, coming down with the Hondo ball team, and attended a meeting with some oil men who were trying to pick a location for an oil

Break at Big Sheller Delays Work

A break at the elevator, in the big sheller, Friday morning not only damaged the sheller but delayed work and shipments. It was caused by a large, heavy boulder being shoveled in with the corn. The corn was being shelled from a local warehouse and there seems to be no way to determine how it got into the warehouse and escaped the notice of the sheller men or others. Some dishonest fellow who was only trying to beat the buyer in weight, perhaps, threw it into a load without suspecting such serious damage to the sheller.

Three Things Paint Must Do

First—It must cover the surface, be true to shade and not fade.

Second—Resist changes of temperature without cracking.

Third—Stand the sun without blistering, chalking or peeling.
Endure, last and satisfy.

All these qualities plus economy will be secured if you wisely give your preference to

Why Purina makes more milk

Cow Chow supplies protein

Mr. E. W. Lacy as a rule takes things as they come and very rarely registers a kick. But there is a limit and he now feels that he has fallen a victim of the wheat pit. He threshed his wheat crop Wednesday and the price was soaring. He offered it on the market Thursday and the bottom had dropped out of the market. Now, what is worrying him is who put the controllers of the wheat market wise as to the coming on the market of his crop, and is looking around for a radiophone outfit, as he thinks that is the only source of information available to the wheat speculators. However, as he does not have to sell he will hold it off the market for a while. Mr. Lacy says his crop of wheat was nothing to brag about, the yield being about 10 bushels per acre. He has been giving some attention to wheat growing the past couple of years, but is not over-enthusiastic over his success thus far. However, some one must make experiments in new crops and we know of no one more capable of making these experiments than he is, as he is not entirely dependent on the outcome to keep the wolf from the door.

The Hondo Summer Normal is in full swing, the attendance is increasing and interest and enthusiasm growing. This school is under the direction of experienced and able instructors and prospective teachers are standing in their own light if they fail to avail themselves of this opportunity to better equip themselves for efficient work in their chosen profession. Teaching is like any other calling. To make a success one must make every endeavor to advance and become more proficient, and there is no better means offered to prospective teachers in this section than the Hondo summer normal. There is no such thing as standing still in any walk of life and when one becomes satisfied with themselves and their work and lose all desire to excel they are in the retrograde class and their failure is sure. If any one in this section contemplates teaching as a means of livelihood they should not fail to enroll with the Hondo Summer Normal School at the earliest possible moment.
